

Standing Strong

Gary Robinson

1. Which Indian reservation is Rhonda Runningcrane's home?
 - a. Pineridge Reservation
 - b. Blackfeet Reservation
 - c. Standing Rock Reservation
 - d. Rosebud Reservation

2. What does Rhonda tell her grandmother is the real reason she attempted suicide?
 - a. Because death is better than the hell she is living with her grandmother
 - b. Because she does not have a future
 - c. Because she didn't want to lose face with the other suicide pack members.
 - d. Because her boyfriend left her for her best friend

3. When the preacher at the funeral of Rhonda's friend told her about the message her received from God, what was her reaction.
 - a. She ran out of the church
 - b. She made a joke about it
 - c. It creeps her out
 - d. It made her cry

4. What or who calms Rhonda when she becomes upset?
 - a. Physical work
 - b. Her Uncle Floyd
 - c. Hanging out with her friends
 - d. A long run through the hills

5. How does Rhonda learn about the pipeline protest encampment at Standing Stone Indian Reservation?
 - a. She hears about it at school
 - b. From her Uncle Floyd
 - c. From a Facebook page
 - d. On the television news shows

6. What is the name of the youth camp formed at the encampment?
 - a. Rising Sun Camp
 - b. Spirit Camp
 - c. 4-Directions Camp
 - d. Unity Camp

Pathfinders

7. Where is the Standing Stone Indian Reservation located?
 - a. North Dakota
 - b. South Dakota
 - c. Wyoming
 - d. Idaho

8. After arriving at the pipeline protest encampment, what job does she tell the camp manager she is good at?
 - a. Fix things
 - b. Social media
 - c. Babysitting
 - d. Cooking

9. Why does Rhonda become known and noticed in the youth camp?
 - a. Because her videos of protest events have gained much notice on social media
 - b. Because of the care she gives Grandmother and the other elders
 - c. Because her organizational skills have become essential
 - d. Because she can fix anything and is a great cook

10. How do the youth protect the elders who have taken refuge in the youth tent?
 - a. They cover the elders in blankets to protect them and form a barrier
 - b. They fly a white flag so the security forces will not destroy the tipi
 - c. They link arms at the elbow and form a circle around the elders
 - d. They form a human wall outside the tipi to take the force from the water hoses

